

Welcome to Church of the Holy Trinity, Vicksburg, on this twenty-third Sunday After Pentecost! Whoever you are, and wherever you are in your journey of faith, we are delighted by your presence as we all celebrate our belovedness in Christ! As we prepare for worship, please open your self as prayerfully as you are able. If you have small children, do ask the ushers about the nursery and children's chapel. It is our hope all children return at the Peace and partipate in the Holy Eucharist. Please know your unique dignity and worth are valued at Holy Trinity. Share the Gospel invitation with us in the holy commitment of creating a more hope-filled and joyful world. To help us complete our welcome, please fill out the information form to let us update you of the many different opportunities to be involved. May we all be refreshed in our holy communion.

We bid your Prayers and Thanksgivings for:
